DATA ANALYTICS EXPERIENCE

Analytics Intern, Hamptons Collegiate Baseball League, Southampton, NY Jun. 2025–Jul. 2025

- Designed and implemented the most comprehensive database in league history for state-of-the-art MLB funded data analytics program, deploying an R Shiny app that gave coaches, players, and league operators clean, validated data that attracted over 100+ visitors.
- Operated league's FlightScope X3B pitch-tracking radar at HCBL games at 35+ games in its first season as the league's data collection system, classifying and tagging over 6,000 pitches, troubleshooting complex technological calibration and weather issues at game speed, validating radar coordinates, and overseeing the analytical lifecycle from collection to evaluation.
- Built working relationships with pitchers, pitching coaches, league stakeholders, scouts, and umpires, fielding ad hoc analytical requests and translating FlightScope data into clear, actionable insights on pitch movement, classification, and strike-zone accuracy.

Assistant Women's Basketball Video Coordinator, Temple University, Philadelphia, PA Nov. 2025–Present

- Live-code practices and games in Sportscode using custom hotkeys, delivering organized, tagged film that lets assistant coaches generate more efficient scouting reports.
- Manage film and scouting workflows across Hudl, Sportscode, and Synergy, keeping video accurate, organized, and accessible to the full coaching staff.
- Develops statistical analysis and predictive modeling in R, including coaching challenge strategy calculators, proprietary transfer portal player projections, and scouting data visualizations communicated to staff across both Temple's Men's and Women's teams.

Senior Research Associate, EAB, Washington, D.C. Aug. 2023–Jun. 2025

- Gathered, examined, and cleaned regional and national labor market, federal education, and university-specific datasets to surface market insights and data visualizations, aggregating findings into research reports delivered to partner institutions to improve academic curricula strategy.
- Ran independent statistical analyses of enrollment and market data in SPSS, using methods of analysis to track student groups over time and forecasting to project future program demand.

RELEVANT SPORT EXPERIENCE

Graduate Assistant, Tennis Operations, Temple University, Philadelphia, PA Aug. 2025–Present

- Independently manages daily operations for two NCAA Division I programs, overseeing match preparation, travel logistics, and NCAA compliance to ensure seamless competition readiness.
- Authors all content for monthly alumni newsletters and supports alumni fundraising initiatives.

Photography Intern, Major League Baseball, New York City, NY Jun. 2022–Oct. 2022

- Provided photography support during the MLB Draft, one of the league's marquee annual events, capturing and processing headshots and action shots for 1,500+ draft prospects for broadcast coverage, MLB.com publication, and club distribution.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

MLB Take the Field 2025, Orlando, FL Dec. 2025
